Deputy Chase also received some additional instructions from Helena, over the wire. A copy of the dispatch is as follows:

Helena, Mont., April 12, 1895.

S. D. Chase, Deputy Collector, Salt Lake City, Utah:
Interest received from state, county and municipal bonds or securities and remts from real estate are not taxable as incomes, but the persons and corporations receiving said interest or rents shall include in their returns as receipts the full amount thereof received or accrued within the year for which return is made and shall deduct the same as not subject to taxation.

Through the orders of his chief, who makes his headquarters at Helena, Montana the deputy collector will receive reports from prospective taxpayers up to 4 n. m. Monday and on the litter day his office hours will be from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m.

There was the usual rush at the local revenue offices yesterday and, in fact, a considerable increase in business was noticeable. This will undoubtedly be the case for the next three days, for there are still many persons and corporations yet to hear from The mining companies are very backward in making their returns, mainland of British Columbia last night, between Gaine and Whatsom, where the full force of the hurricane was felt.

A party of Indians, composed of one man, two women and a 5-year-old boy, sought shelter from the storm and made their camp at the foot of one of the huge cedar trees abounding in that locality. When the storm was at its height a furious gust of wind struck the giant protector of their camp, tore it up by the roots and hurled it to the ground.

The camp was struck fairly in the center and was completely demoished, all of the party except the man being istantly killed. He, too, is unjured, but may recover if he can be roused from the deep despondency into which he has been plunged by the tragic removal from his side of all the members of his little family.
